

Create a Story

It all starts with you.

Picture This: Hard work, dedication, the right calf, and you at the backdrop. No, it is not easy. It takes time, effort and relentless dedication. But, we will be there with you every step of the way. We pride ourselves on integrity, dedication, honesty and good, sound cattle. We are as dedicated as you are. After all, your success is our reputation.

The One: We've traveled many miles to select your next champion. Please feel free to stop by any time after September 1 and view them for yourself. It is always helpful if you call before stopping by, but you're always welcome. As the cattle arrive all fall, we'll also post several pictures on-line at www.dunkcattleco.com, available 24 hours a day.

Make The Contact: Please, call any time. All inquiries are appreciated.
